Left for Henley Meeting

A special General Meeting was held in the Club Quarters at Henley on the afternoon of Friday July 7th to consider what action should be taken by the Club to clear the members of the Stewards Four from the imputations of unfairness and unsportsmanlike conduct cast upon them by the course taken by the Umpires in making a complaint to the Regatta Committee of their steering in the race against Baze Arnie on the previous day.

F. S. C. Clark, in the Chair - ^{unanimously}
After considerable discussion it was resolved that in the event of the resolution of the Regatta Committee, to be published in the press, not being considered satisfactory that a letter should be written demanding an apology from the Umpires.

A vote of thanks was unanimously passed to the members of the Stewards Four Messrs. Hughes, Broughton, Clark & Mullett for the way in which they had upheld the honour of the Club under most trying circumstances.
